That Cannot Be Sold. Seattle.-Fruitgrowers throughout the northwest are being notified by transportation companies that hereafter no fruit shipments will be forwarded unless the freight is paid in advance or guaranteed by some responsible person or mank. The action of the railroad companies is brought about, it is said, by the fact that during the past season large amounts of fruits did not bring enough on the market to pay the expense of transportation. The grower did not feel like digging down into his pockets for the amount of the freight bill, in view of the fact that he had received nothing for his fruit, and the commission men felt no obligation toward the railroad companies, so the roads lost out all around. They will take no chances the coming season.

ONTARIO ARGUS OREGON YOUTH ROBS BANK AND ESCAPES

in Bold Daylight Holdup by Lone Bandit.

Glendale, Or.—Headed by Sheriff George Quine, of Roseburg, a posse of experienced mountaineers are scouring the densely timbered districts west of Glendale in search of Ray Diamond, the 22-year-old desperado, who held up Acting Cashier B. P. Smith, of the PAYETTE WOMAN HAS LIMB at 9:30 o'clock and secured something over $3000 in cash.

Trained bloodhounds in care of their master arrived here from Cottage Grove, and soon after were given a scent from a pair of socks which were found in the fugitive's lonely cabin. The hounds took the scent and started over the rough mountain trail in a westerly direction, followed by the sheriff and members of the posse.

The country west of Glendale is thickly timbered and is traversed by hundreds of mountain trails. Many of these trails lead in the direction of Grants Pass, while others furnish a direct route to the coast.

Inquiry has satisfied the officers that Diamond had made careful prep-Sacramento to all railroad agents in arations for the crime and that he is prepared to stay in the mountains for weeks if necessary. Only a few days ago he purchased 10 boxes of cartridges, and these he carried when he entered the bank. It is also-said that he secretly has carried food over the mountain trail leading west of town for several days, and has the same cached in some isolated section of the dense wilderness within a few miles of Glendale.

That he will remain in hiding for several days before attempting to make his getaway is the belief of the officers working on the case.

VALE NAN CLAIMS HE WAS

Prof. C. S. DeLong, of Vale, reported to the police here Wednesday evening that be had been held up and relieved of a gold watch and a lot of money, The report is that he was SCHOOL coming from Nyssa in his auto, his chauffour at the wheel, and when near the K. S. D. ranch they saw a big grey auto slide across the road in front of them and thinking they were in trouble, stopped. Two men jumped out of the car and coming up demanded that their hands be slevated at once and their valuables handed over forthwith The guns looked dangerous and they complied with the request. The professor only had about $196 and his gold watch, while the driver,

Frank Ross, contributed only $17. The professor came on to Ontario, hunted up the marshal and told his story. The telepones were started and it was found a car answering the description passed through Nyssa and crossed the bridge there, but was out of sight after that. If any of the many telephones near the seems of the rothery had been used the car and occupants could have been in the name of the State of Oregon: stopped very easily.
